'Pablo González, an already fully accomplished maestro, surprises at every performance with his musical maturity, his ability to create chemistry with the orchestras he conducts and the vitality of his craftsmanship'

J L Pérez de Arteaga – La Razón, February 2010

Spanish conductor Pablo González is a highly articulate and intelligent musician with a provocative wit and infectious enthusiasm for music making. He has been appointed Music Director of Orquestra Simfònica de Barcelona i Nacional de Catalunya from 2010/11 and is also Principal Guest Conductor of the Orchestra of the City of Granada.

Born in 1975 in Oviedo, González studied at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama (London). Winner of the Donatella Flick Competition in 2000, he rapidly began to establish his reputation and has been Associate Conductor of both the London Symphony Orchestra and the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra. He was also the winner of the 8th Cadaqués International Conducting competition in 2006.

In addition to numerous appearances in his native Spain, highlights of the current season include concerts with Orchestre National du Capitole de Toulouse, London Symphony Orchestra and Deutsche Radio Philharmonie Saarbrücken-Kaiserslautern, where he is a regular visitor; most recently he performed and recorded a Schumann disc with them. Also in 2009/10 he conducted a highly-successful run of performances of Mozart's don Giovanni with the Orquestra Sinfónica del Principado de Asturias for Opera de Oviedo.

Forthcoming debuts include concerts with the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra, Tonkünstler Orchestra and Warsaw Philharmonic Orchestra. Other recent and current engagements include the Orchestre Philharmonique de Liège, Orchestre de Chambre de Lausanne, Danish Radio Sinfonietta, City of London Sinfonia, Sinfonieorchester Basel, Orchestre Philharmonique de Strasbourg, Winterthur Musikkolegium and all the major orchestras in Spain.

Soloists with whom González has appeared include Anne-Sophie Mutter, Maxim Vengerov, Truls Mork, Renaud Capuçon, Viviane Hagner and Alban Gerhardt.
